

Dear Gregor,

Thank you so much for reaching out to us to request permission to translate The Code Twins and share it with your students.

We authorize you to translate the e-book and make it available to your students, as outlined in your request. This permission allows you to make the book available for free as a download or printed copy. The book may be provided to students on a complimentary basis and you may not charge any fees for sharing, downloading or printing it. Finally, we ask that you include all content in the original English version of the book, including copyright information, and we require that the following note be included in the acknowledgments:

This e-book has been translated to Slovenian with permission from Skyward, Inc., Stevens Point, WI, USA.

Please send me a final copy of the translated version of the e-book before making it available to your students so that we may give final approval. Thank you again!

Jeff Walker, Marketing Director, Skyward, Inc.

Gregor Anželj, Computer Science Teacher, Gimnazija Bezigrad